

Plaques around Christ Church

Leonard Hame Williams

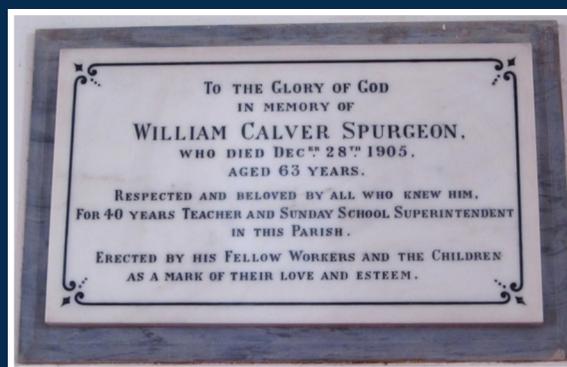

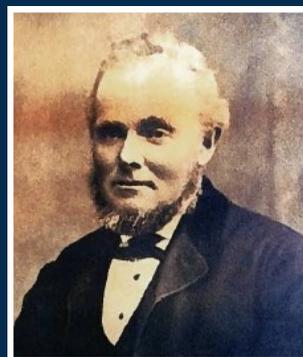

Leonard Hame Williams was born at 46 Denmark Road, Lowestoft in 1885. He died in action in the Great War on 26th September 1917, aged 32. His body was never found.

Here he is in uniform, and also pictured as the youngest child in the school photo.

Photographs kindly supplied by Margaret Chubbock (great niece).

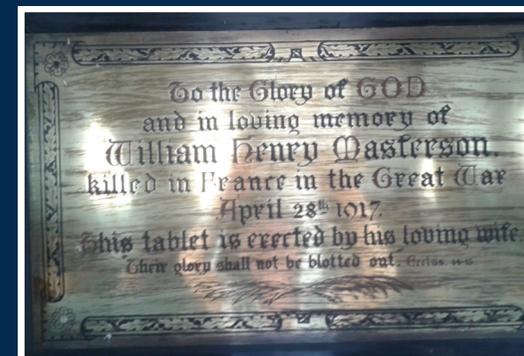

William Calver Spurgeon

This plaque was restored in 2016 by stonemason Graham Bessey of Critoph & Crowe.

William Carver Spurgeon was born on 10th Feb 1842 and married Elizabeth on 31st Jan 1861. He was a fisherman and also a member of The Old Company of Beachmen. He was awarded a silver medal, now in the keeping of his great great granddaughter, for the rescue of seven men from the Brig Osip on 13th Jan 1866.

He lived at Russel Villa, 2 Newcombe Road, Lowestoft. He had two children, Margaret, who was a Sunday school teacher at Christ Church, and Albert who was a very well known & respected Cox of Lowestoft Lifeboat for many years.

If you know

William Henry Masterson

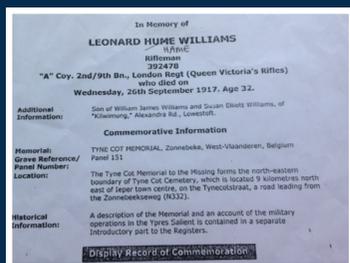

and would like to add to this memorial please contact Christ Church Office.

See Contact tab for details.

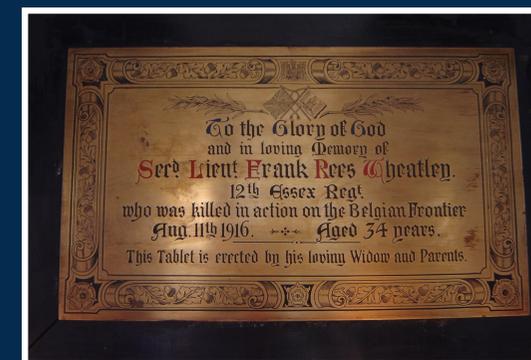

Commemorative plaque on the east wall of Christ Church

Record of Commemoration
Rifleman 392478
of
Queen Victoria's Rifles

Sitting on the floor in front of his big brothers

If you know

Sargeant Lieutenant

Frank Rees Wheatley

and would like to add to this memorial please contact Christ Church Office.

See Contact tab for details.